

Director of Development – The Arts Based School, Winston-Salem

The Arts Based School (“ABS”) in Winston-Salem is seeking a part-time or full-time Director of Development. Applications are invited to apply now, for the upcoming school year.

The Development Director would be responsible for generating donations to the school from individuals, business/corporations, and grant-making entities. This involves communication of the mission of the school to the local, regional, and national community through marketing, branding, advertising and media and public relations: developing and sustaining partnerships; implementation of fundraising events; and creation of solicitations and donor recognition strategies. If you are interested in applying for this position, please email your resume to Principal Hollis at rhollis@artsbasedschool.com

ABS is a popular and successful public charter school beginning its 17th year of operations. The school offers competitive salaries, State Employee health insurance and retirement to full-time teachers.

Scroll down for several articles about ABS.

Winston-Salem Monthly. Date, April 29, 2016 Creative Class

Winston-Salem Journal. January 30, 2016: Arts Based School Teacher Wins Arts Council Award

Winston-Salem Journal. March 13, 2014: Not Your Mother’s ‘Romeo & Juliet’

Winston-Salem Journal. May 29, 2014: Curriculum is inspired by Garden at Arts Based School

Winston-Salem Journal. August 18, 2013: Creativity in Action at the Arts Based School

Winston-Salem Journal. Sept. 19, 2013: Arts Based School Unveils New Building

WFDD Radio Piece. Sept. 19, 2013: Arts Based School in Winston-Salem Celebrates Expansion

Winston-Salem Journal. May 2, 2013: Arts Based School Students Get Red Carpet Treatment

WFDD Radio. February 26, 2013. Arts Based School presents Romeo & Juliet on the Border

www.artsbasedschool.com

